

LCDR Noguerras, USNSCC – Commanding Officer of the Training Contingent (COTC) RTC-NE 2018 - FT. Devens, MA.

U.S. Navy Veteran (ET2). LCDR Noguerras honorably served in the Navy from 1984-1990. He attended several Navy schools including: Basic Electricity & Electronics, Electronic Technician “A” School and two Cryptographic maintenance and repair schools.

His first set of orders after training and what would ultimately be his last during his 6 year active enlistment, was to Naval Communication Area Master Station, Mediterranean, Naples Italy (NAVCOMS MED). LCDR Noguerras performed his duties as an Electronics Technician, supporting 6th Fleet until March 1990. During his time in service he was awarded a Meritorious Unit Commendation Medal for his support role of the Libyan Airstrike in 1986. He was also awarded the Good Conduct Medal, National Defense and Overseas Service Ribbons.

After active duty LCDR Noguerras has gained a few noteworthy accomplishments; He served in the US Navy Reserves from 1997-2000. He earned a Bachelor’s of Computer Science, graduating Summa Cum Laude in 2003, He also earned an MBA with a focus on Information Systems in 2006. Currently, he is employed as a Senior Test Engineer and is responsible for Automation and Test of complex electronics utilized in both the military and commercial markets.

LCDR Noguerras joined the United States Naval Sea Cadet Corps in March of 2013 and serves as the Regional Director of Empire Region 3-2 and 3-4. He is married and has three children. The USNSCC has become high priority in his life and in the lives of his family. Proudly serving alongside him are ENS Carrie Noguerras (Wife), MIDN Kelsey Noguerras (Daughter), CPO Kelsie Lehmann (Niece), and INSTR Annette Lehmann (Mom-In-Law).