The National Uniform Depot

- Toured in November of 2014 while attending a NHQ-sponsored RT COTC conference at RTC Great Lakes
- News to me:
 - The NSCC does not own the uniforms – Goodwill Industries owns them
 - Goodwill sells the uniforms to sailors at a discount in weekly “Reclaim Sales” (these sales support programs which employ special needs folks on the base)
 - Sailors have first dibs – we get the scraps!

The National Uniform Depot

The National Uniform Depot

- There are genuine shortages of popular items
 - L/XL anything
 - Navy has been enforcing its BMI standards – there aren't a lot of 18-year old recruits who are Large or Extra Large, but there are a lot of L/XL sailors who are buying them in the Reclaim Sales
 - Female anything
 - There are fewer of them, and they graduate at a much higher rate than their male shipmates!
 - Dress Uniforms
 - Recruits only get one set, and they're issued about 6.5 weeks into an 8-week training; not many wash out that late into RT.

The National Uniform Depot

- RECOVER YOUR UNIFORMS!!
 - Supply is so tight, NHQ and NUD will be enforcing the 110% allowance for the foreseeable future
 - Uniform Deposits
 - Repayment... (with interest, if earned!)
- If it's not in stock this week, try to order it again next week, and the week after, and the week after...
- Any problems with Magellan ordering/payment?

- You must create an account to receive “wholesale pricing”
 - See MagellanSupport email of 29OCT15 for instructions
 - Otherwise you may end up paying double!!
- Any problems ordering?
- Any problems with quality?

Action Letter 15-15

- NWU Pattern collar and parka tab insignia – phase these in as personnel are promoted, hopefully by end of 2016

Social Media

- “Wardroom” Facebook page is to be restrained to professional conversations – no spats, no bullying
- Facebook “friending” and Twitter “following” of cadets by officers is considered Fraternization
 - [Standards of Conduct ¶17; Region 1-1 INST 02-2013; Region 1-3 Policy Statement 01-12]
 - A new MIDN must delete all current cadets from any personal social networking accounts
 - Relatives are excepted
 - “Fan Pages” are excepted

Not-so-Social Media

- Snapchat etc... messaging services meant to delete messages or prevent records of messages from being kept
- Whisper, Yik-Yak, Afterschool, askFM etc... anonymous posting services
- Calculator% etc... “photo vaults” meant to hide photo galleries as other apps
- ChatRoulette or Omegle etc... “stranger” chat apps
- Tinder or Blendr etc... “dating” or “flirting” services
- Hot or Not or Down etc... “rating” apps
- Poof etc... apps meant to hide other apps

Contact with Cadets

Updates

- 2015 updates to Admin Manual incorporate Magellan procedures

 - A more streamlined Monthly Activity Report is still being considered
 - In the meantime, don't forget to communicate with Sponsors!

Updates

- Auxiliary Members
 - Meant to ensure that those “once-in-a-while” adults have had a background check and are insured by the program
 - Not permitted to wear the NSCC uniform
 - Not permitted to serve escort duty at overnight trainings
 - Those who hold leadership billets or are regularly engaged in training cadets must enroll as an Instructor

Updates

- Referrals
 - Tracking referrals is a huge concern for NHQ.
 - Be sure to enter meaningful notes and updates in Magellan so the data is useful to NHQ – why are some cadets enrolling and others aren't?

Updates

- Local trainings will still be on NSCTNG003/004 orders, and not entered into Magellan (yet... it's coming!).
